Mayors Lunch

The Community and Recreation Services Department will be hosting the 12th Annual Mayor's Welcome Back Lunch, Tuesday, February 18, 11 a.m. The event offers the public to join Mayor Wolcott and the City of Surprise as they welcome back the Texas Rangers and Kansas City Royals at the Surprise Recreation Campus.

Individual seats are $30 and a corporate table of eight is $210.

City of Surprise/Jr. Suns Basketball League:

Thirty coaches from our program attended a coach's clinic hosted by the Phoenix Suns coaching staff. Jeff Hornacek, the new coach for the Suns was the primary speaker for the clinic. Responses from coaches were very positive and they stated that they would attend more of these types of opportunities if offered.

Tennis:

This Sunday the Tennis Complex hosts the Seventh Annual City of Surprise Tennis Classic, a USTA Pro Circuit event. Up to 64 players are competing in qualifying to advance to a 32 player field. Matches start on Sunday, February 16 at 9:00 am. Players from the Pro Circuit events all earn points towards their professional ranking. Players like Maria Sharapova and Andy Roddick all started their careers in these types of event.

Traffic Update

Traffic restrictions at Waddell & Sarival are scheduled for February 18 & 19th for street repairs. On Tuesday, February 18th, west bound Waddell will be closed at Sarival from 8:30am to 3:30pm an officer will be scheduled during this restriction. On Wednesday, February 19th, Sarival will be closed north & south bound from Waddell to Cactus 8:30am to 3:30pm. Both closures are necessary to complete the street repairs.

The remaining 200ft of patch work on Waddell is scheduled for the following week and should only need a flagman setup. Any questions, please contact Ron Gaffey, Traffic Control Coordinator 623-222-1734.

December 2013

Field Operations Division: On December 1, 2013, Surprise Communications received a 911 call from a subject who requested Police Officers to his location to "come kill him". He said he was armed with a 9mm gun. The subject had been considering suicide for a day and a half because he was upset over the loss of his parents. Shortly after police arrived, the subject told Communications he wanted to give up and speak with officers. The subject was taken into custody without further incident.

On December 5, 2013, Officers responded to the 12700 block of W Amy Dr reference a runaway juvenile. The parents of the juvenile stated that the juvenile has made a habit of not returning home after school however he usually returns home or is located within a reasonable time. Officers checked the surrounding area and were unable to locate the juvenile. The next day an officer followed up at the juvenile's school and located the juvenile who was then picked up by his mother.

On December 9, 2013, Officers responded to the Circle K, located in the 12700 block of W Grand Ave, reference a Robbery. A description was provided of the lone female suspect who fled north on Frontage Road. Officers were nearby and quickly set up a perimeter. Shortly thereafter, a female subject matching the height and weight but wearing different clothing walked out from a residential property on Market Street and was detained. A search was conducted of the front yard of the residential property where the suspect was seen exiting and attire matching that of the suspect, along with the stolen property from Circle K was found. The suspect was arrested and booked into the 4th Avenue Jail on robbery, theft, shoplifting and an outstanding warrant.

On December 22, 2013, A 911 call was received from an employee at the WalMart located at 14111 N. Prasad Gateway. The employee indicated that a white male subject in a grey sweatshirt, with a blue baseball cap and a green backpack had just stolen some property and pulled a knife on him when he confronted the subject. Officers responded to the area and located the subject walking on Waddell Rd. The employee was able to positively identify the subject that officers stopped as the same person who had committed the robbery at WalMart. The subject was booked into the 4th Avenue Jail for armed robbery, aggravated assault, and shoplifting.
